

Party Terms and Conditions

Our Party Room is a private party area just for you, and is offered on a first come first serve basis. You will be told at time of booking whether you are in the party room or upstairs in the main studio. Parties in the main studio will have a private table but may share the room with other guests. Our parties are run exactly the same regardless of which room they are held and are the same price and with the same terms and conditions.

Each party has an hour and a half for creating/painting and half an hour for food. In the 10-12 & 3-5 Saturday sessions, the 4-6 weekday sessions or the 11-1 Sunday session the party food is done after the creating portion. The 12:30-2:30 Saturday session and the 1:30-3:30 Sunday session have party food before. If this set up doesn't work for you then we can alter things to your liking – however we will have to know this before the party starts in order to do this for you.

Weekday and Saturday parties are a minimum of 6 – if numbers drop below this you will have to pay for the 6 regardless.

Sunday parties are a minimum of 15 – if numbers drop below this you will have to pay for the 15 regardless.

Deposit of £5 per child is required before the party, if deposit is not made by the date requested we hold the right to cancel your party. We will always try to contact you first – if we cannot get in touch the party will be cancelled. Deposit is taken of the final payment on the day assuming all agreements were met.

We ask that parents do not stay for the party (except mum/dad or max of two adults who are holding the party). If parents are insistent that they must stay, then you are accepting that the party may finish ahead of scheduled time due to parents helping their children and not allowing them to create for themselves, we cannot be held responsible for timing or painting issues if parents are present as it can make our job very difficult. The 'Party Girl' (the member of staff dedicated to you) is in charge of the party and parents can not alter how the party is run – except parents of the birthday child.

Large parties i.e over 25 may be split across two floors or however we see best to accommodate them. You will be made aware of how/where you will be seated on booking confirmation.

Parties do have age requirements, if you book a party for children that do not meet these requirements we cannot be held accountable for the quality of the finished item or the timings of the party. Age requirements are mentioned on each party page. We hold the right not to allow children to partake if they do not meet the requirements.

If a party has not be paid for at the end of the party, all items created at the party are property of Glazy Daisy and can be held until payment has been made.
